

Apologies

Alex Haslem

1. Promotional leaflet

Nigel has agreed to continue to continue printing for the moment but will work out how much it is costing him.

Sally to obtain quote from Bettaprint in Woodbridge

Advertising

Alternative forms of advertising to be considered i.e. Leiston Film Theatre

2. Fundraising and promotional eventsFundraising

Loan available from the Greenlight trust.

Sponsorship from Ipswich Building Society

Nigel Kerridge to check '137' from Parish Council

Seed planting at School (end Sept)

Mon Oct 8th

Planned itinerary:

AM Seed collecting

LUNCH

PM Performance and seed planting

A Silver Birch is to be purchased using donated voucher and to be planted on Oct 8th.

Children to write invites with covering letter from school.

To be sent to:

- Grandparents
 - Contacts from list.
 - Landowners i.e. Ledger Moore, Mrs Hickling, Rodney Blois, Mike Lynch, Mrs McDonald, Amanda Burton,, Cockfield Hall (Hawkins bazaar).

Raised bed requirements:

Ask amongst contacts for the following:

Sleepers /Scaffolding boards -Jan to ask George Murphy

Top Soil- Nigel Kerridge

Membrane

Horticultural sand and peat substitute.

Mr Humphreys has agreed to help construct the raised bed.

Seed planting at Church

Discussed with Liz Morris and it was decided to have promotional stand leaflets at Harvest Festival. Liz Morris offered to make an announcement at Church and to ask parishioners if they could bring seeds etc to the school for planting.

Suggested sources of information:

Suffolk Wildlife Trust

Brooke House, Ashboking, Ipswich, IP6 9JY 01473 90089

<http://www.suffolkwildlife.co.uk> e-mail info@suffolkwildlife.cix.co.uk

Rendlesham Forest Centre

Mr Jim Smith

Forestry Enterprise

Rendlesham Forest

Woodbridge

Suffolk

IP12 3NF 01394 450164 e-mail e.anglia.fdo@forestrygsi.gov.uk

Woodcraft Folk (Wickham Market)

E-mail bob@homefarmparham.co.uk

01728 724437